

SKILLS FOR LEARNING AND LIFE

These figures come from the free text responses to the section titled Skills for Learning and Life. This question asked respondents to identify the kinds of skills they felt children should acquire beyond the traditional core of reading, writing and maths.

Top 3 priorities:

1. Social and Emotional Wellbeing
2. Generic Life Skills (e.g. cooking, first aid)
3. Visual and Performing Art / Outdoor Learning