14th February 2019

Dear Families,

Thursday 7th March 2019 is World Book Day. Throughout the day, the children will be taking part in a range of activities across the school to celebrate reading. To add to the enjoyment of the day and promote our love for reading at Wensum Junior, we would like all children (and staff) to dress up as a book character.

We are lucky enough to also have the author Rebecca Wright in school on this day who will be working with the classes. She will be bringing her book 'Simon and the Magic Drums' with her and there will be an opportunity for the children to buy a book if they wish – there is no obligation at all but if they would like to the books cost £5.99 and they will need to bring this money in on World Book Day. Reserve your copy at the school office by Friday 1st March so we know how many copies to order in.

Your child will receive a book token after half term that can be exchanged for special world book day books in supermarkets and book shops or used to get £1 off any book costing £2.99 or more (see worldbookday.com/books).

Thank you for your continued support,

Louise Richardson
