Golden Ticket Reading Reward Scheme

Friday 1st October

Dear Parents/Carers

Your child has now been issued with a reading record and reading book in a plastic book bag.

Children need to read out loud at home at every day. Please listen to your child read and then record the date, and what they read, in their reading record.

Once they have read 5 times they get a golden ticket with their name on. This will go into a box and every week 1 ticket will be pulled out. This child will receive a reading related reward!

Wensum's reading expectation is for your child to read every night. This means every child should be able to get a golden ticket each week.

The more they read, the more tickets they get! Your child's teacher will communicate what day they want book bags to be returned to school in order to issue Golden Tickets and change reading books.

We hope you will enjoy hearing your child reading out loud to you.

Paul Wickens
